

Vocabulary List
Quiz on March 13

Equivalent Fractions: fractions that have the same value.

Factor: whole numbers that are multiplied together to get a product.

Multiple: a multiple of a number is the product of the number and any other whole number except zero. The multiples of 7 are 7, 14, 21, 28, 35 ...

Quotient: the answer to a division problem.

Dividend: a number that is divided by another number.

Divisor: the number by which another number is divided.

Sum: the result of adding two or more numbers.

Product: the answer to a multiplication problem.